Queerness, fluidity, and extremism, oh my.

The metaphor of decadence was all I knew of the story of Cabaret. I expected musical flamboyance, well-loved songs and can-can dancers. Surrounded by some of my favorite peeps and cheap prosecco, I was prepared to enjoy. Instead, I was mesmerized. Seduced into intimacy with characters living through cynicism, irony, and the exhaustion of being human in a world where systems run by the illusion of power and the darkest depths of the human ego reign over higher intellect. (much like today)

Breakthroughs in gender fluidity and the timelessness of sexuality, the evil of social decline, impending doom and the struggles of humans seeking relief from it all. The INCREDIBLE acting, STUNNING vocals, fabulous dance and wonderful production - I was transported. What a show. Wichita has such extraordinary talent. Whatever is on your schedule between now and the end of April - if you live in Kansas, you shouldn't miss this experience! You will feel a million things and none of them will be superficial ❤️.
